LECTURE ON "WOMEN'S SEFAETY AND SEXUAL HARRASSMENT"
13-04-2022

REPORT

Name of Activity:- Lecture on "Women's safety and Sexual Harassment"

Date: 13-04-2022

Department:- NSS Girls unit in collaboration with women safety cell.

No. of participants - 60.

Objective:- Women have the right to be free from violence, harassment and discrimination and removing the barriers of unsafe environment can help women fulfil their potential as individuals and as contributors to work in communities and economies.

Description of the event: On this occasion from 1st march Panjab was called to make girls aware of their safety in the work places. It was very interactive session and many solutions were worked out for women's safety. This created a sense of security among the girls which was lacking in them. Many women safety issues like domestic violence, sexual assault, dowry death and murder were also discussed.

Outcome: This discussion boosted self confidence and sense of security among the girls to face the challenges in this unsafe environment.
